There have been meetings of only a moment, which have left impressions for life, for eternity. No one can understand that mysterious thing we call influence...
yet...everyone of us continually exerts influence, either to heal, to bless, to leave marks of beauty; or to wound, to hurt, to poison, to stain other lives.

3. ______________ — There's a winner and a loser.
4. ______________ — We follow because we have to.
5. ______________ — We both win something.
6. ______________ — We follow because we want to.

Your Leadership Potential

Your Leadership Level

The difference between these two lines is determined by our...

1) ______________
2) Willingness to ______________

Q.#4 do I influence others?

Principle: Our value and significance rises when we influence others at a time when it is needed... .

There comes a special moment in everyone’s life, a moment for which that person was born. That special opportunity, when he seizes it, will fulfill his mission—a mission for which he is uniquely qualified. In that moment, he finds greatness. It is his finest hour.

— Winston Churchill

Napoleon understood this reality as well. He once said: “I have noticed in every campaign that I have fought—that there is a key segment of time, somewhere between 13 and 15 minutes in which that battle is won or lost. I focus on that segment of time, and I win.”

Leaders are...

They sense...

1) Moments
2) Places
3) Times

Breakthroughs occur in people and organizations when they...

enough that they have to change.

enough that they want to change.

enough that they are able to change.

Q.#5 do I influence others?

Principle: you do something will ultimately determine you do.

Right motives are crucial to people because leadership functions on the basis of... .

Questioning your motive is different than questioning your character. Motives are usually attached to specific situations and are often short in duration. Character, however, is connected to the heart, and is with you in all situations. Therefore, you can have a temporarily flawed motive and still a solid character.

Continual wrong motives is a result of bad... .
Q.#6 do I influence others?

Too often, people feel that they cannot influence others because they do not have a leadership position.

Remember, the position doesn’t make the leader...

the leader makes the position!

Leadership mistakes often made by people in the middle of the pack

1. If I’m not on ____________, I can’t lead.

   Leadership is ________________, not ________________.

2. When I get to the top, ________________, I will learn to lead.

   You will be tomorrow what you are preparing for today.

3. If I were on the top, ________________ would follow.

   If people don’t follow you now, they won’t follow you then.

4. When I get to the top, I will be able to do ____________________.

   The very essence of all power to influence lies in getting the other person to participate.

   — HARRY A. OVERSTREET

A Leader’s Prayer

God, when I am wrong, make me willing to change.
When I am right, make me easy to live with.
So strengthen me that the power of my influence
Will far exceed the authority of my position.

   — PAULINE H. PETERS

2. Our influence with others is usually not in ________________.

   Anytime you think you have influence, try ordering around someone else’s dog.

   — THE COCKLE BUR
3. With influence comes ______________  .

   There are people whose well-being and destiny are within a leader’s influence.
   A leader cannot escape that fact.
   Too many leaders want the ______________ of leadership without paying

4. My influence with others is either ______________ or ______________  .

   My Influence
   My life shall touch a dozen lives before this day is done,
   Leave countless marks for good or ill ere sets the evening sun,
   This is the wish I always wish, the prayer I always pray;
   God, may my life help other lives it touches by the way.

5. Our influence can ______________  .

6. People of positive influence ______________ to others.

   A life isn’t significant except for its influence on our lives.
   — Jackie Robinson
An Influencer has...

1. I __________________ with people

In order to be a leader a man must have followers. And to have followers, a man must have their confidence. Hence the supreme quality for a leader is unquestionably integrity. Without it, no real success is possible, no matter whether it is on a sections gang, a football field, in an army, or in an office.

If a man's associates find him guilty of phoniness, if they find that he lacks forthright integrity, he will fail.

His teachings and actions must square with each other. The first great need, therefore, is integrity and high purpose.

— Dwight D. Eisenhower _________________________ is the glue that holds people together.

In the business world it's acceptable to make mistakes, to lay eggs — big ones — but the Center for Creative Research, in a significant study, learned that one thing that sounds the death knell for those who aspire to the top rung on the ladder is betraying a trust. Virtually anything else can be overcome over a period of time, but once trust is betrayed, moving to the top of the ladder is out of the question.

Survey of 1,300 executives:

Q. What quality do you desire most in your team members?

A. __________ said “Integrity”

Some years earlier in their Mission Statement they had a line saying that, “they would operate with honesty and integrity.” Several weeks before the Tylenol incident the President of Johnson & Johnson sent a memo to all Presidents of Divisions of Johnson & Johnson asking if they were abiding by and if they believed in the Mission Statement. All Presidents came back in the affirmative.

The story goes that within an hour of the Tylenol crisis the president of Tylenol ordered all capsules off the shelf knowing it was a $100 million dollar decision.

When reporters asked how he could decide so easily and rapidly on such a major decision, his reply was, “I was practicing what we agreed on in our Mission Statement.”

Integrity issues for influencers:

1. Does my organization have __________________ values?

2. Do the leaders __________________ and __________________ them for others?

3. Do I place the interest of my people _________________ my own?

4. Am I _________________ to others for my actions?

5. Since I know myself best, do I like who I am?

When I lay down the reins of this administration I want to have one friend left. And that friend is inside myself.

— Abraham Lincoln

2. Nurtures people

The height of your influence upon others depends on the depth of your concern for them.

Many leaders love their position more than their people. When that happens, they soon lose their focus.

Few leaders love their people more than their position. When that happens, leaders focus on their position.

Achievers care about people

Nice guys get the best results from subordinates, according to a study by the research outfit, Teleometrics International, as reported in the Wall Street Journal.

Of 16,000 executives studied, the 13 percent identified as high achievers tended to care about people as well as profits. Average achievers concentrated on production, while low were preoccupied with their own security.

High achievers viewed subordinates optimistically, while low achievers showed a basic distrust of subordinates' abilities. High achievers sought advice from their subordinates; low achievers didn't. High achievers were listeners; moderate achievers listened only to superiors; low achievers avoided communication and relied on policy manuals.

Notes on nurturing people:

1) Nurturing people does not mean ________________ people.

2) Nurturing people does mean ________________ to people.

Love will find a way. Indifference will find an excuse.

3) Nurturing people does mean ________________ people.

You will find as you look back upon your life that the moments when you have really lived, are the moments when you have done things in a spirit of love.

— Henry Drummond

4) Nurturing people does mean ________________ people to a higher level.

Jan Carlzon, chairman and CEO of Scandinavian Airlines, speaks from his experience when he suggests that there are two great motivators in life. One is fear. The other is love. You can lead an organization by fear, but if you do, you will ensure that people won't perform up to their real capabilities.

Deep down, your players must know you care about them. This is the most important thing. I could never get away with what I do if the players feel I didn't care for them. They know, in the long run, I'm in their corner.

3. Faith in people ____________________ make things possible ____________________ make things happen

Every person is entitled to be valued by their best moments.
— Ralph Waldo Emerson

In leading others, there are three feelings that we cannot possess:

1) __________________— If we are afraid of people we cannot __________________ them.

2) __________________— If we dislike people we should not __________________ them.

3) __________________— If we look down on people, we will not __________________ them.

Les Giblin, an authority on human relations, says that our actions must be genuine. “You can’t make the other fellow feel important in your presence if you secretly feel that he is a nobody.”

It is wonderful when the people believe in their ________________ .

It is more wonderful when the leader believes in the ________________ .

Note: 1) Borrowed beliefs have no ________________ .

2) We become ________________ what we believe ________________ .

3) Lack of belief in people hurts both the ________________ and the ________________ .

4) The greatest gift a leader gives another person is to express belief in that person when that person doesn’t believe in himself.
